

※Relevant people should immediately contact the Academic Affairs Section (student) or the General Affairs Section (staff)

If you have cold symptoms such as fever Please do not go to school or go to work.

- ① Severe symptoms such as "shortness of breath", "fatigue", "high fever", etc.
 - ② Mild cold symptoms such as fever and cough (in case of clinically vulnerable people*)
 - ③ Mild cold symptoms such as fever and cough lasting few days
- If you have ① or ② or ③
(You should consult if you have had the symptoms for more than 4 days.)

Contact either of the below:

- Primary care doctor
- Mie Prefecture Consultation Desk (☎059-224-2339)
- Tsu Health Center (☎059-223-5345)

Mie Prefectural Office Homepage
Consultation desk for pneumonia related to Novel coronavirus infection

*clinically vulnerable people :
elderly people,
pregnant women,
People with underlying medical conditions, etc.)

Consult a medical institution following the instructions

Novel coronavirus infection confirmed

Follow instructions of health center

Novel coronavirus infection suspected

Follow the instructions of your doctor and health center, and Check your body temperature and other symptoms every day to strictly monitor your condition.

Other diagnostics

Follow the instructions of your doctor

When going to class or office, wear a mask and keep your hands/fingers clean at least for a week

Close contact (family, etc.)
have fever or respiratory symptoms

- Wear a mask and keep your hands/fingers clean.
 - Check your body temperature and respiratory symptoms every day for two weeks.
- If you have cold symptoms such as fever, immediately follow the above flow.

Close contact (family, etc.) with a confirmed Novel coronavirus infection

Follow the instruction stated in "Flowchart for the novel coronavirus"