Bandung

Bandung is the capital city of West Java province, the country's third largest city, and second largest metropolitan area in Indonesia. The beautiful city with population about 7.4 million is located 768 meters (2,520 ft) above sea level, approximately 140 km south eastern of Jakarta. The city lies on a river basin surrounded by volcanic mountains.

Many of restaurants, cafes, European boutiques, shopping center and luxurious hotels were opened in this city, made it was dubbed as Paris Van Java. Moreover, the mixture of convenient climate, varieties of entertainment facilities, hang-out points, and the cheaper fashion shops also makes Bandung being a popular weekend-break destination for people living in other cities.

About Unpad Summer Program 2017

Description

The annual 10 days-program held by university which consists of cultural activities, lectures, discussion with business practitioners also company/manufacture visits, group work and presentation. This year's program will be held in Bandung Campus and Pangandaran coastal villages.

The Objectives of Program

The objectives of the program is to promote friendship across nations while exploring the culture and beautiful beach of West Java. We believe international networks of intellectuals will bring peace and prosperity to the world as future leaders will have a better understanding of international affairs.

2017 summer program is especially design to explore ideas from international students on how to improve the quality of life of coastal villages in Pangandaran area. Indonesia is an archipelago country consists of more than 17,000 island. Unfortunately many villages in coastal areas are less developed which become the main concern of the central government of Indonesia for the last few years.
