

The 32nd Tri-U International Joint Seminar & Symposium

Call for Participants

An international exchange program centered on presenting research papers in English, hosted on a rotating basis by six partner universities. Through English research presentations and theme-based workshops, participants will engage in diverse international exchanges. If you are interested in this rewarding and fulfilling program, please join the information session first.

THEME: Sustainability in Action: Shaping Resilient Futures
TOPICS: Green Energy, Circular Economy, Social Innovation and Education, Sustainable Tourism, Urban Intelligence, and Healthcare Innovation

【Dates】

November 8 (Sun) ~ 13 (Fri), 2026

【Host University】

Chiang Mai University (Thailand)

【Qualifications】

Students of Mie University

*Approx. 10 people

【Conditions】

- Students must be able to receive thesis supervision from their academic advisor and obtain their advisor's approval.
- The research must be unpublished.
- Students must be able to attend the intensive lectures.
- For undergraduate students, credits will be awarded as part of the Center for General Education.

【Selection Process】

Participants will be selected through an internal screening.

【Participation Fee】

Subsides will be provided by Mie University.

【Deadline】

June 12 (Fri), 2026

【How to Apply】

Please download the application form from the OIER website and submit it to the International Relations Division.

【Interview】

June 25 (Thu) ~ July 3 (Fri), 2026 *English

【Contact & Submit】

International Relations Division (tri-u.info@cie.mie-u.ac.jp)

Information Session

2026.
5.19
TUE
12:10~12:50

Integrated Research
Building II 2nd Floor
Conference Room

